

COACHES EVENING

24TH FEBRUARY

Information about the evening

This is an open invitation to all parents who are keen and able to get involved, or who are already involved, with coaching a sports team at school this year. There will be an informal discussion about the coaching opportunities at Victoria Avenue as well as the chance to meet with development officers and coaches from sports organisations within Auckland.

The development officers will be on hand to discuss what support they can offer you as parents.

If you are prepared to assist with a team please complete the slip below to acknowledge your attendance. If you cannot attend but wish to help please still return the slip to the office.
